01:33:58 Ruzanna Carter: Thank you Peter.

01:34:28 Anair Ovsepian: Thank you Peter

01:35:17 Peter Bahlwanian: <https://youtu.be/nT73T2PZwmo?si=6X0FvqZi0tIs-EiW>

01:36:00 Paul Narguizian: Thank you Peter for your excellent summation and detailed analysis of this complex topic.

01:37:15 Shaké Topalian: Yael, I want to thank you for your work which has helped me so much in my work with first, second and third generation of Armenians,. And the impetus to write and publish my paper Intergenerational Transmission of trauma: bearing Witness to "My" experience of genocide.

01:37:54 Anna Kachikyan: <https://www.thearmenianreport.com/post/erdogan-threatens-armenians-to-forget-about-the-armenian-genocide-and-embrace-present-realities>

01:38:00 Edna Antonian: Yesterday I heard in Civilnet News that 11,000 Artsakhtsis have left Armenia. This is a tragedy!

01:38:50 Peter Bahlwanian: Thank you Sarineh, Lusine, Luidmyla, George, Roger, Yunis, Michael, Karolin, Donatilla, Ruzanna, Anair, Paul, Shake, Edna... for joining our webinar today..

01:39:10 Partev Sarkissian: Erdgoan making excuses,... this is how criminals act when they are cuaght.

01:40:01 Donatilla Mukamana: Thank you Anna

01:40:46 Shaké Topalian: The Armenian genocide gave Hitler Permission when he said Wh paid attention to the Armenians/

01:40:54 Jacqueline Murekatete: Thank you Peter for that very informative presentation and for your commitment to fighting for historical truths surrounding Armenian genocide against those who seek to deny it. As a survivor of the 1994 Genocide against the Tusti in Rwanda, I stand in solidarity with you and the Armenian people. We have a saying in Rwanda which when loosely translated in English is " Truth though it may pass through fire will never get burned". So we must never give up in fighting for truth, not only in honor of the victims but in service of future generations/humanity .

01:42:17 Edna Antonian: USA has recognized the Genocide now. United Kingdom has not. Australia has not. New Zealand has not!

01:43:47 Michael Gavlak: Soghomon Tehlirian!!!

01:44:20 Ted Iskenderian: I have often heard rumors that Talaat and other Turkish leaders were Jews/and or Masons. And that Jews were complicit in the genocide, as were the Germans. Please speak to the truth or falsehood of these rumors.

01:44:57 Michael Gavlak: Stanislav... what was the last name of Lemkin's Professor?

01:45:54 Edna Antonian: ISRAEL has not recognized the Armenian Genocide!

01:48:57 Jill Hofmann: Armenia is relevant . Eg the word genocide came from the early Armenian genocide . In IHL , crimes against humanity . Under IHL , civilians are supposed to be protected under convention 4 and under convention 3 prisoners of war have right to Humane conditions

01:50:46 Edna Antonian: We need to emphasize that Aliyev's power as a dictator in his own country, his legitimacy, depends on getting his population fixated on the Armenians as being their enemy instead of giving them proper education so they can start to ask for social justice. There is no social justice in Azerbaijan.

01:52:31 Luidmyla Minina: Thank you!

01:52:37 Lusine Abovyan: Thank you Gurgen!

01:52:51 Peter Bahlawanian: https://patreon.com/warriorsaints?utm\_medium=unknown&utm\_source=join\_link&utm\_campaign=creatorshare\_creator&utm\_content=copyLink

01:53:16 Anna Kotyrba: why people don't like victims? "the society" adore violence and perpetrators. Why?

01:55:53 Roger KUPELIAN: Great points by Maria.

01:56:37 Roger KUPELIAN: Kemal Attaturk Park in Wellington

01:59:29 Roger KUPELIAN: Kemal is considered the 'Father of Modern Turkey'

02:00:03 Edna Antonian: Australia and New Zealand are still colonies of United Kingdom, who has not recognized the Armenian Genocide due to economic benefits from Turkey and now Azerbaijan's oil and gas (BP oil).

02:00:57 George de Castro-Day: I highly recommend Stefan Ihrig's Ataturk in the Nazi Imagination (Harvard, 2014)

02:01:50 Roger KUPELIAN: Ironically, there were New Zealander Anzac units during world war 1 that protected Armenians.

02:02:14 Partev Sarkissian: Extermination,... word used in regards to vermin. But people are NOT vermin. No wonder Lemkin created a new word to use.

02:03:47 Jan Kizilhan: Mustafa Kemal, called Atatürk killed in 1937/38 70000 Kurdish Alevi in Dersim. Today Erdogan is bombing Yazidi region in Iraq and supported IS who committed Genocide against the Yazidi. The genocide of the Armenien impact a transgenerational Trauma.

02:07:33 Roger KUPELIAN: One day, Let's talk about Elon Musk's 'admiration' for Ataturk.

02:09:31 Karolin Kiomajian: As an Armenian we will always have hard time to put this traumatic events behind us , because Türkiye and Azerbaijani governments keep repeating and reminding us , Armenian ppl of what their nomadic ancestors have done to us and still doing ! And they will do it again if they've the chance !! Look at the latest war of 2020 Azerbaijan . Most of them that they live in Turkey and Azerbaijan are fanatic brainwashed nationalists !! I personally have multiple different religious friends in Canada and they're really good friends but when we talk about the genocide , it gets sour so we decide to stop and change the subjects. My question is to all of you the panelists how can we help to our future generations of kids to not have this trauma ?

02:09:57 George de Castro-Day: Highly recommend Stefan Ihrig's Ataturk in the Nazi Imagination (Harvard, 2014).

02:11:33 Paul Narguizian: Per Maria's recommendation: <https://www.amazon.com/When-Democracy-Died-Enduring-Lausanne/dp/1316516423>

02:11:48 Paul Narguizian: When Democracy Died: The Middle East's Enduring Peace of Lausanne

02:12:31 Partev Sarkissian: Gishte, so cogent and concise. Mersi Maria jan.

02:12:54 Lusine Abovyan: Thank you Maria. Very insightful presentation.

02:13:05 Roger KUPELIAN: Kia Ora, Maria

02:13:09 Peter Bahlawanian: I wish I can give you a clear answer on that Karolin, but I've been searching for that answer myself. Trauma can only heal if we can face the issue with perpetrators that commit it, it starts from them admitting and accepting their actions, after that time will heal, until then, nothing changes and the pattern continues

02:13:28 Keith Gunthardt: Lemkin Professor: JULIUSZ MAKAREWICZ – "doctrine of STATE SOVEREIGNTY gives governments the right to conduct internal affairs as they see fit" (re: chickens)

02:13:42 George Meguerian: well done, Maria

02:13:54 Luidmyla Minina: Thank you! Very interesting and important!

02:23:15 Anair Ovsepien: Thank you Maria

02:24:05 Ted Iskenderian: Dr Danieli would be a good resource for anybody telling the story of Soghomon Tehlirian

02:24:43 Jack Mammad: thank you!

02:25:36 ITAI SNEH: GREAT WEBINAR! Inspiring, Itai

02:25:38 Ted Iskenderian: How was this thesis demostrated in Rwanda?

02:26:06 Ted Iskenderian: The thesis of restorative justice
02:26:18 Michael Gavlak: Agreed... Ted... I'll be contacting Dr. Danieli!!
02:27:53 Ted Iskenderian: How does the Armenian case for reparations relate to the African Americans' agitation for reparations?

02:29:33 Jill Hofmann: Yes ! It takes much less time through international criminal court now because of modern tech . Eg recording crimes via phone , media etc . In Rwanda they had trials of forgiveness where the families who had their family killed did testimonials in front of the perpretrators .

And a vast healing began . The reason they did trials of forgiveness is 1) because there were not jails to put them in as so many people had done so many offenses and 2) to provide the families injured to share with with their perpetrators the damage done .

02:32:16 Karolin Kiomajian: Very well said Peter

02:32:47 Anair Ovsepien: Thank you very much Gurgen, for everything you do for all of us on the various platforms

02:36:28 Partev Sarkissian: Putin has said out in the open,... he's planning to re-constitute the soviet union,... but call it something else. Rose by any other name, is a lie just the same.

02:50:43 Ruzanna Carter: There is a good grounding technique that's similar to that called 5-4-3-2-1 grounding where you use your senses to bring you into the present moment. It's 5 things you can see, 4 things you can touch, 3 things you can hear, 2 things you can smell and 1 thing you can taste. Art therapy also helps to create images to express any anger and frustrations and process them after.

02:50:55 Anna Kotyrba: is this webinar to see again? if yes, where? thank you

02:52:17 David Bernard: I thank all organizers and guests. It was very informative. Will the recording will be send to participants?

02:52:38 Ruzanna Carter: But there is so much rich culture and history so I would always choose to come back as an Armenian but I feel your pain absolutely.

02:53:36 Karolin Kiomajian: Thank you for everyone who participated in this discussion today, this was really helpful thank you Peter for organizing this meeting.

03:01:47 Ted Iskenderian: Is my question about the rumored identity of Talaat and company too sensitive to discuss?

03:01:55 Peter Bahlawanian: The link to The Desire To Live series on YouTube <https://youtu.be/nT73T2PZwmo?si=PZMuloJ9Dnl56RNk>

03:03:28 David Bernard: I'd appreciate if the guests can comment about the problem that the Armenian Quarter of Jerusalem faces today

03:03:50 Ted Iskenderian: I second David's question

03:04:28 Mary Elloian: America is going through a trauma of its own: will its democracy continue or will it become a dictatorship by those who wish to destroy our system of government for their own exploitive purposes. The next election will determine this.

03:04:37 Ruzanna Carter: Thank you everyone for all you do. I have to go.

03:04:57 Ted Iskenderian: Thank you for describing the reactions to trauma. That is very revealing to me!

03:06:07 sarineh khachatourian: Thank you to all panelists and the host for your expertise and dedication to this crucial topic! ❤️💙

03:06:31 Michael Gavlak: Pamela Steiner of Harvard does similar work regarding cultural trauma. (Great granddaughter of Henry Morgenthau)

03:06:39 Partev Sarkissian: Yes!

03:06:42 Dr. Gurgen Petrossian: Dear David, happy to see you here 😊

03:07:16 Lusine Abovyan: Thank you Dr. Danieli for putting this together. These conversations are very important.

03:10:29 Michael Gavlak: soghomontehlirian.com

03:10:55 David Bernard: there is an existential threat for Armenian Quarter of Jerusalem!

03:11:11 Partev Sarkissian: Leaders who are purveyors of war are poor and bad leaders. If they were good leaders, they would not need war to govern. Good leaders don't need war.

03:12:11 Ted Iskenderian: It's easier to govern by fear. It works at all levels.

03:13:17 Michael Gavlak: EXACTLY Peter!
03:13:44 Jacqueline Murekatete: Yes Dr. Danieli, Jacqueline Murekatete still here but can't speak where I am, can only listen. Thank you to all the speakers today whose remarks are as critically important and more urgent than ever before given the state of the world today. Survivors of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda stand with the Armenian community today and always. Myself and Genocide Survivors Foundation will continue to add our voices in fighting the denial of the Armenian genocide and the erasure attempts.
03:14:43 Ted Iskenderian: Again, please tell us if/how reparative justice happened in Rwanda
03:21:41 Partev Sarkissian: Don't allow the new normalization of genocide!
03:22:01 Lusine Abovyan: Thank you, Anna, for your insights.
03:23:15 Lusine Abovyan: Good point Partev about not allowing normalization of genocide.
03:23:50 Narine Navasardyan: Thank you for all you do.
03:24:35 George de Castro-Day: Excellent, wide-ranging, and important program. Thank you.
